About

I'm a stand-up comedian on the UK circuit. I first tried stand-up at 18, came back to it at 26 with something to talk about, and in October 2026 won the Thatcham Festival comedy competition on the audience vote. I also make comedy for the screen: White Straight Man, my comedy stand-up series, and Drafts To Laughs, a YouTube channel that takes stand-up apart to see how it works.
